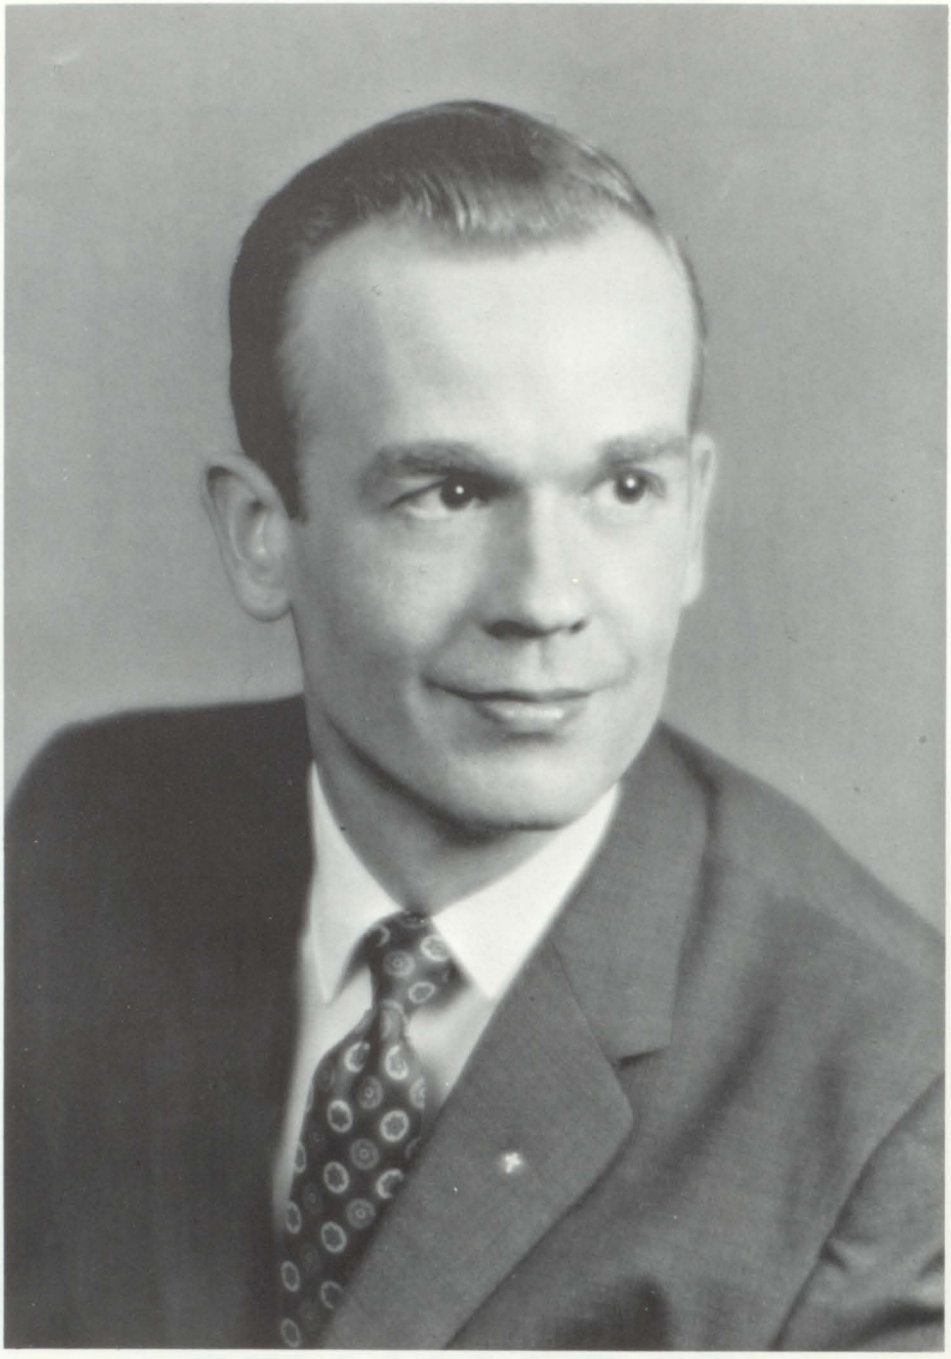
The 55th
Edition
Of The

MAROA-FORSYTH TROJANAIRE



We, the Senior Class of 1969, do hereby dedicate this annual to Mr. Dennis Campbell, in recognition of his fine service as both teacher and friend at Maroa-Forsyth High School. For your fine leadership, we thank you.

THE EDITORS

We, the Editors, present this book to you in hopes that it will bring back many happy memories.

We would like to thank the staff for their contributions and especially thank Mrs. Coen for all her help and guidance.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Richard L. Irwin

To the Class of 1969:

Congratulations to the Class of 1969! You have successfully completed your high school years and are now ready to further prepare for your chosen field of endeavor. As you do so, you carry with you my sincere wishes for your happiness and success.

I want to congratulate you on your accomplishments at M.F.H.S. and want you to know that, even though you are graduating, we are always ready to serve you in any way we can.

Visit us when you can - you are always most welcome.

CLASS WILL

I, ROSEMARY ALEXANDER, bequeath my ability to get along with teachers to my brother, Scott.

I, CHERYL ANDERSON, being of sound mind and body, bequeath my ability to keep my hands off my boyfriend in public to Carol Davis, since she is in desperate need of it.

I, JOHN ARCHER, bequeath my '62 Corvair to the Drivers Education Class to show what I learned in there.

I, DAVID BOOMER, bequeath my resource of infinite patience to my dear brother, who needs it.

I, PAT BOYD, bequeath my ability to put my foot in my mouth every time that I open it, to Linda Humphreys, although she doesn't need any help.

I, SANDY BURNS, bequeath my ability to use a little soap and water, and some elbow grease to a few smelly underclassmen.

I, PENNY BUTLER, bequeath my ability to say the wrong thing at the wrong time to anyone who likes the taste of foot.

I, DEBBIE CARDER, bequeath my ability to talk all the time in study hall (and never get caught) to any person who wants to try it.

I, PAM CARRIER, bequeath my ability not to get detention in four years to Robin Hassinger, who really needs it.

I, JOHN CARTER, bequeath my ability to look at girls to Greg Shull, although he doesn't really need any help.

I, GARY CHANDLER, bequeath my English book to Dorothy Smith who needs to learn good English.

I, BECKY CURRENT, bequeath my natural curly hair to Marla Vaughan so hers can be even curlier.

I, FRANCEY DAUGHERTY, bequeath my ability to make Mrs. Coen laugh, to anyone with enough nerve to take shorthand.

I, LARRY DAY, bequeath a new pack of cigarettes to "Smiley" Young, so he will quit stealing them from Mr. Brandt before the game.

I, STAN DIAL, bequeath my ability to be on time for things to anyone who thinks they can do better.

I, PAM ELLIS, bequeath to Karla Linn the luck of having to write two term papers, so she can take over at the library and "Syndicate Row."

I, DAVID ERLENBUSCH, bequeath my ability to grow long hair to Dennis Kapper, who always asks how I do it.

I, JOHN HALICKI, bequeath my ability to hear Polock jokes for four years to my cousin, who hasn't any ability.

I, STUART HALL, bequeath my car lot to Homer Van Fleet.

I, BONNIE HARDY, bequeath my ability to jump high to "Clyde" Gillen, so he can rebound those balls for us.

I, DICK HARRINGTON, leave all my weight to the football team because they really need it.

I, MIKE HASSINGER, bequeath my natural clown ability to Mr. Aiken in hopes he'll use it wisely.

I, PAM HEINZ, bequeath my braces to anyone who thinks that they can stand them for eight years.

I, NAN HIMES, bequeath my ability to get along with Mrs. Berry to my sister, Jo.

I, GARY HINKLE, bequeath my ability to stay out of trouble in Industrial Arts to Tony Halicki.

I, DAVID HOCKADAY, bequeath my ability to get along with Mr. Boyd to anyone who needs it.

I, ADLAI HOFFMAN, bequeath my driving ability to anyone who likes to end up in the ditches.

I, WAYNE HOFFMAN, bequeath my feet to anyone who wants to get out of P.E. class for four years.

I, STAN JOHNSON, bequeath my car to the Drivers Ed. class, so that Mr. Haines will never worry about one of his students speeding.

I, DENNY KAPPER, bequeath my long hair to Mr. Boyd so he can enjoy having it hang in his eyes.

I, JUDY KENNISON, bequeath my ability to have only one detention in four years to John Chester.

I, LEE ELLEN KITCHENS, bequeath my volleyball ability to Mike Zombro, who has trouble staying on his feet.

I, CHARLIE LAND, bequeath my ability to powder myself good for games to "Smiley" because he gets such a kick out of watching me.

I, KATHY LANGE, bequeath my shy and quiet manners to my sister Carmen, who needs them.

I, MARSHA LANE, bequeath a set of large bath towels to anyone in girls' P.E. who finds it difficult to dry on Mrs. Berry's "TEA" towels.

I, BELINDA LEACH, bequeath my Number 13 in P.E. roll call the past four years to any superstitious person.

I, TRUDY LEGGETT, bequeath my ability to have my hair lightened by the sun all year around to Mr. Haines who can't figure out my method.

I, CYNTHIA LESLIE, bequeath my great love for cute, little birds to Laura Alexander who is in love with one.

I, ANITA LINN, bequeath my height to Pode Greene, because I don't think he can make it through high school without it.

I, MARY ANN LOGUE, leave my ability to take a lot of kidding and insults to a lot of people in this school that need it.

I, DEBBY MALONE, bequeath my tuba to Ruth Griffin because I know she will carry it with great enthusiasm and vigor down those long parade routes.

I, MARSHALL MARLOW, bequeath my ability to swipe billfolds without being caught to Richard Bogle.

I, GLEN MORGAN, being of sound mind and body, leave it to the first comer.

I, TERRY MORRIS, bequeath my ability to spend $300 on phone calls to Indiana to anyone who's crazy enough to try it. The bill is still adding up!

I, NELSON MOSELY, bequeath my ability to pass all my subjects in four years to Mike Hassinger, who will need it next year.

I, YVONNE MOWRY, bequeath my ability to get away to the restroom every fifth hour to Helen Phipps, and I bequeath my height to Mike Zombro who is so short he gets lost at assemblies and between classes.

I, SHERRY MOYER, bequeath a book, "How to Teach School Without Really Trying," to Mr. Haines, who already has a good start.

I, KATHY MYERS, bequeath my wig to Mrs. Crane so she'll have more colors to choose from.

I, MARIE PASLEY, bequeath a bottle of nosedrops to Mrs. Berry for her little red nose.

I, KAREN PETERSON, bequeath my ability to wait for a certain guy, to some girls in this school who can't seem to.

I, LINDA RILEY, bequeath my ability to have second hour P.E. four years in a row to anyone who has never had second hour P.E.

I, VICKI ROBERTSON, bequeath my ability to turn a corner on all four wheels to my sister, Bonnie, who doesn't seem to realize that a car has more than two.

I, SHARON SCHICK, bequeath my "crummy" seat on the bus to Roger Massey.

I, PAM SCHNEIDER, bequeath my ability to lose the buttons off my P.E. blouse and never sew them back on to Brenda Morgret.

I, LOIS SHIPP, bequeath my worn-out pom-pons to the waste basket in the hopes that next years girls have new ones.

I, DEBBIE SMITH, bequeath to Leigh Turner a toy badge like his dad's, a pair of brown pants to Jerry Iverson, and to Peg Hall all the fun I've had these four years.

I, BRENDA STILES, bequeath my ability to get a bottom locker in P. E. all four years to anyone that likes to sit on the floor.

I, ROCKY STOUTENBOROUGH, bequeath some of my height to Carmen Price so she can get her own library book off the top shelf.

I, TAMMY TAYLOR, bequeath my ability to get brownie points with Mrs. B. by waiting on her on Sundays at the cafe to my sister, Kay, who will have to put up with her for three more years. Good luck, Kay.

I, MARSHA VAUGHAN, bequeath my grace and coordination to Connie Simpson, who needs the little I have to give.

I, LOLA WALTERS, bequeath my country-hillbilly music albums to Darrell Beck.

I, CHRIS WARNER, bequeath what hair I can spare to replace and restore the steadily graying and retreating hair of Mr. Haines.

I, TERRY WEIKLE, bequeath my ability to play football to Mr. Boyd who has been a good coach through the years.

I, PAT WINDLAN, bequeath my ability and looks to the boys.

I, BILL ZOMBRO, bequeath all my Brownie points from Mr. Boyd and Mr. Haines to my little brother, whom I'm sure will need them.

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of '65 we entered M.F.H.S. as lowly freshmen under the leadership of Mr. Fentem and Mr. Lindberg. Our 74 members elected Larry Day as President, Nelson Mosley as Vice President, Bonnie Hardy as Secretary, and Cynthia Leslie as Treasurer. For our Homecoming candidates we chose Tami Taylor, Bonnie Hardy, Glen Morgan, and Mike Hassinger. Our Homecoming float placed 2nd. Looking forward to the Christmas Dance, we chose Bonnie Hardy, Marsha Vaughan, and Terry Morris as our candidates. During the year we lost Earl Bush, Glen Campbell, and Florence Harrington.

We returned as sophomores in the fall of '66 and elected the following class officers. Glen Morgan, President; Rosey Alexander, Vice President; Roxanne Stoutenborough, Secretary; and Debby Malone, Treasurer. Our class now had 76 members. We gained Marsha Lane, Mary Ann Loga, Dorothy Campbell, Pat Boyd, Judy Kennison, and Teresa Deloney. Our sponsors were Mr. Schuller, and Mr. Wilhour. For Homecoming candidates we chose Bonnie Hardy, Tami Taylor, Pat Windlan, and Denny Kapper. Our Christmas Dance candidates were Bonnie Hardy, Becky Current, John Halicki and Pat Windlan.

We returned to school as upperclassmen in the fall of '67. Our class officers were President, Debby Malone; Vice-President, Sharon Schick; Secretary Pam Heinz; and Treasurer, Kim Marsh. Our Junior year was highlighted by our Junior play "Meet Corliss Archer." The Junior-Senior Prom, held at the Southside Country Club, was another high spot. Our Homecoming Candidates were Trudy Leggett, Teresa Dick, Pat Windlan, and Gary Hinkle. Trudy got 2nd attendant. Our Christmas Dance Candidates were Bonnie Hardy, Marsha Vaughan, John Halicki and Terry Morris. During the year we gained Karen Peterson, Russell Groves and Pam Chandler. We lost Carol Clifton, Jean Clifton, Teresa Deloney, Donna Robinson, and Russell Groves.

As Seniors, the Class of '69 began the year off right with 69 members. Our sponsors were Mrs. Diller and Mr. Schuller. Our class officers were Chris Warner, President; Sharon Schick, Vice-President; Trudy Leggett, Secretary; and Penny Butler, Treasurer. Our Homecoming Candidates were Cynthia Leslie, Penny Butler, Larry Day, and Glen Morgan. Larry and Cyn were our King and Queen. The Class of '69 leaves behind a lot of hard work and good memories!

WE ARE GREAT!

WE ARE FINE!

WE'RE THE CLASS OF '69!

CLASS PROPHECY

It is now 1979. The class of 1969 is having a reunion, discussing what has happened to each one since they left school. Mrs. Sally Diller and Mr. Richard Schuller, sponsors of the class, are interested to see:

ROSEMARY ALEXANDER has been married for ten years and is expecting her first child, so let's "Pray for Rosemary's Baby."

CHERYL ANDERSON has just been voted "Miss Busybody of 1979." When asked for a comment she replied, "Sorry, I'm too busy."

JOHN ARCHER has just opened his own chapter of Hell's Angels in Maroa. It consists of 43 Corvairs.

DAVID BOOMER is the star of a pro baseball league. His fans chant "Spuds No. 1."

PAT BOYD, (No, she's not Mr. Boyd's daughter), but she is the new English teacher at M.F.H.S. We guess that the name "Boyd" will always linger on in this high school.

SANDY BURNS is now in Cuba. This is the tenth time Sandy's plane has been hijacked. She is thinking of giving up the job as an airline stewardess.

PENNY BUTLER is now working for Bell Telephone Company as an operator.

DEBBIE CARDER is now a dental assistant for Dr. Crouch. He pulls the teeth, and Debbie administers the gas.

PAM CARRIER is now Mr. Schuller's assistant in Chemistry. I guess Pam just couldn't bear to leave that fascinating class.

JOHN CARTER now owns the Carter Diaper Service. He gets free diapers for all his little "Carters."

GARY CHANDLER, the famous noon-hour basketball whiz at Maroa, is now playing for the Philadelphia 76ers, at half-time only.

BECKY CURRENT is now owner of "Current's De-Fuzz Shop." It is located on Broadway Street in Decatur. We knew she'd get rid of those curls somehow.

FRANCEY DAUGHERTY has now been married for six years. Francey and her husband "Tree" now have three little branches.

LARRY DAY is now principal at M.F.H.S. He breaks his paddle over Charlie Land, Jr. quite often.

STAN DIAL has now opened up his chain of Charm and Etiquette Schools. We understand he ran Patricia Stevens out of the business.

PAM ELLIS now has her own television program called, "The Beautiful Pam Ellis Show," co-starring Phyllis Diller. We knew that laugh would get her somewhere.

DAVID ERLENBUSCH has developed a new shrub called the "Earl 'n Bush."

JOHN HALICKI has just become the Pope's advisor on the interior activities in Poland.

STUART HALL now owns a pig farm southeast of Maroa. He grew fond of them while playing their parts in the speech play and the Sophomore Float.

BONNIE HARDY has just finished her 989 page book on "How to Catch Your Boyfriend in a Lie or at Another Girl's House." We hear it is on the "Top Ten Best Sellers List" in the country.

RICHARD HARRINGTON has just completed training for the Detroit Bulls. (The Professional Lightweight Baseball Team).

MIKE HASSINGER has now taken over Hugh Hefner's place in the Playboy Club - Will he ever settle down???

PAM HEINZ is employed as Phyllis Diller's personal beautician.

NANCY HIMES is now her mother's own personal secretary for Himes Laundromat.

GARY HINKLE is now the Editor of Mad Magazine. He gives free publicity to his chain of gas stations. (Tinkle Bell Gas)

DAVID HOCKADAY is now co-starring in the movie "Bashful Men are Great."

ADDIE HOFFMAN, alias Frank Hoffman, is still writing secret love notes, signing them William, Frank, or Adlai.

WAYNE HOFFMAN now owns his own Auctioneer Service. What did you say, Wayne?

STAN JOHNSON is now a psychiatrist and has his office in the Citizen's Building. He lies down on the couch and falls asleep while the patient discusses his problem. His most frequent patient is Mrs. Berry.

DENNY KAPPER is now the caretaker at the Maroa Cemetery. You can ALWAYS find his car "parked" there. He spends most of his time working nights.

JUDY KENNISON is the proud mother of 15 children. We just knew she wasn't as shy as she led us to believe.

LEE ELLEN KITCHENS is very busy on Sunday's, cruising up and down U.S. 51 in Henry's car, pulling their yacht. We hear they have just launched the yacht in Weldon Spring's, because Lake Decatur just wasn't big enough.

CHARLIE LAND is now the President's Advisor on Physical Fitness. He has just recuperated from his last heart attack, because of all his sports activities.

MARSHA LANE now owns the Steak & Shake parking lot.

KATHY PRICE LANGE has just been married for eleven years. All she ever hears is the "Lange-Lange" of little feet.

BELINDA LEACH is a very busy lady. She is President of the G.D.A. (Girls' Detassler's Association). In the afternoon she manages her chain of restaurants.

TRUDY LEGGETT is now the Mayor of Clinton.

CYNTHIA LESLIE now owns her "Bust Them Up" Shop. We think it is a branch of Mark Eden.

ANITA LINN is now assistant librarian at M.F.H.S. She reaches the books on the top shelf for the little kids.

MARY ANN LOGUE is nowliving in Indianapolis, Indiana. We hear she spends her weekends taking her spite out on the racetrack with high speed.

DEBBY MALONE is in college taking calculus, botany, physics, and basketweaving. She seems to be having trouble in basketweaving.

MARSHALL MARLOW is running a marshmallow factory. He is having trouble with robbers because he can't seem to remember to lock his doors. He had the same trouble in school with his locker.

GLEN MORGAN now owns a famous burlesque club. We understand that Glen is the main attraction with his dance routine. A talent scout must have been in the audience at the speech play.

TERRY MORRIS is now the Ag teacher at Maroa-Forsyth. He just couldn't get away from those Ag trips.

NELSON MOSLEY is now a famous television announcer. His famous expression is about his, "Twenty Mule Team Borax" commercial.

YVONNE MOWRY has been named "Miss Mouth" for the 14th consecutive year.

SHERRY MOYER is running Moyer's School for Surgical Butchers, I mean nurses.

KATHY MYERS is wanted for theft, for "robbing the cradle."

MARIE PASLEY is now a "go-go girl" at the Morgue.

KAREN PETERSON has now written her own "COOK" book.

LINDA RILEY is now wanted by the FBI for forging checks. She got her practice in band by forging passes.

VICKI ROBERTSON is now a quarterback for the Green Bay Packers.

SHARON SHICK now owns stock in the razor blade company.

PAM SCHNEIDER is now the author of one of the most widely read gossip columns.

LOIS SHIPP now carries her own megaphone with her every place she goes. She found out of high school that people just could not hear her.

DEBBIE SMITH has just published her latest novel, "How to Tip Over an Out House Without Getting Caught." Her theory is, "plan the night before and "heave Ho!!!"

BRENDA STILES has her own reserved parking place in front of the school. Now she and her boyfriend can "park" before school without getting into anyone's way.

ROCKY STOUTENBOROUGH has finally recovered from her nose surgery ten years ago. She can really "wiggle" her nose now.

TAMI TAYLOR is now teaching gymnastics at the YWCA. She specializes in "Phipps."

MARSHA VAUGHAN is now Pat Windlan's own personal secretary. We hear she takes great shorthand. At least that is what she says.

LOLA WALTERS is starring in "General Hospital." On Channel 17 at 1:30 each weekday. Tune in and watch the star.

CHRIS WARNER has just made his first whistling recording, "I Love Me - Yeah, Yeah, Yeah!" He is also whistling duets with Mr. Fred Lowry, "The Whistler" for the Student Council assemblies.

TERRY WEIKLE has taken over Weikle's Destruction Company - I mean Construction Company.

PAT WINDLAN now owns Pat's Pool Parlor. It saves a lot of money when you own the place.

BILL ZOMBRO has now taken over for Charles Atlas. "Small but Mighty" is his motto.
